bongo sheds important new light on the most fascinating epoch in human history ancient egypt in this heavily researched work he traces the evolution of civilization not to the middle east as most scholars do but rather the south american tribes whose cultures had greatly influenced what would become the land of the pharaohs modernization has been a profound change of human civilizations a worldwide phenomenon and trend since the 18th century it includes not only the great change and transformation from traditional to modern politics economy society and culture but also all human development and the rational protection of the natural environment at present it has changed not only people s lives in many aspects but also the strategic pattern of world system at present modernization is not only a worldwide phenomenon but also a development goal of many countries it is a common responsibility of the world scientific community to study the principles explain the phenomenon and serve to reach goals of modernization the russian chinese scientific conference on civilization and modernization the first of its kind was held at the institute of philosophy of the russian academy of sciences ras from 29 to 30 may 2012 leading experts from the institute of philosophy ras the china centre for modernization research of the chinese academy of sciences cas the institute of sociology ras and the institute of social and economic problems of territories ras of kursk and tyumen state universities and other research centers took part in the conference the conference focused on two issues civilization and modernization and global and regional modernization part one and part two respectively of the proceedings twenty one papers in total were presented and they are collected here in this volume nineteenth century italy is a vast unexplored territory in the history of modern political thought and liberal democratic theory apart from mazzini pareto and mosca the authors of this period are little read even though their central concerns the riddle of human liberation progress and liberty are as important today as ever this volume presents a selection of the writings of carlo cattaneo 1801 1869 one of the period s most important thinkers as selected by an equally important personage of a subsequent time the anti fascist intellectual gaetano salvemini cattaneo had a profound sense of the historical contingencies underlying the quest both to understand human affairs and to realize a self governing society cattaneo s ideas and framework of analysis like those of john stuart mill and alexis de tocqueville were not shaped by a narrow intra academic agenda but by the great social economic and political transformations of his time the issues he addressed included problems of revolution reform and change in the passage to modernity which extended far beyond the confines of nineteenth century italy the selection of original pieces presented in this translation is preceded by an introduction by the editors carlo g lacaita and filippo sabetti which guides the reader through cattaneo s thinking and puts it in a comparative context ultimately however it is the editors goal to let this profound italian thinker speak for himself recent debates have highlighted the importance of the self to a better understanding of the nature of culture and its relation to power in his new book john mandalios incorporates the current postmodern debate on these issues with a deeper philosophical exploration of identity and cultural formation and the dynamics of social power underlying them he takes up identity formation within an analysis of the historical social political religious and psychoanalytical dimensions of civilized life that can be traced back to the classical world questions ordinarily associated with the postmodern condition otherness fragmentation power the situated self disciplinary practices and multiplicity are related to the problematic of human subjectivity and how civilized modes of conduct of the self cannot simply be explained by national cultural traditions mandalios argues that self identity is not reducible to the effects of globalization or power or any one single collective identity representation the self is enveloped within a complex which requires a civilization analytic perspective into the world and the inner life civilization is a constantly invoked term it is used by both politicians and scholars how useful in fact is this term civilization and its contents traces the origins of the concept in the eighteenth century it shows its use as a colonial ideology and then as a support for racism the term was extended to a dead society egyptian civilization and was appropriated by japan china and islamic countries this latter development lays the groundwork for the contemporary call for a dialogue of civilizations the author proposes instead that today the use of the term civilization has a global meaning with local variants recognized as cultures it may be more appropriate however to abandon the name civilization and to focus on a new understanding of the civilizing process globalization and civilizations challenges established assumptions about the nature of civilizations and the supposed inevitability of the conflict between the islamic and western worlds uniquely this edited book critically interrogates the concept of civilization by asking whether it is still valid in the globalized world economy of the twenty first century the first half of the book provides an historical and theoretical context to understand the idea of civilization in political science and demonstrates how the various social economic political and cultural processes of globalization have radically altered perceptions of civilization the second half of the book looks particularly at non western examples of the interaction between globalization and civilization and includes case studies on the arab world islam china india and europe this book is an expanded version of the rhythms of history the book that made macro history into a semi quantitative science new features include 1 an appendix showing how the history of mayan civilization conforms to the book s theory of civilizations including the latest information from the newly discovered hieroglyphic texts at dos pilas guatemala 2 an appendix on the sub saharan african civilization great zimbabwe showing it fits the theory 3 a comparison of the theory with toynbee s observations showing the many new features resulting from a quantitative theory 4 numerous historic pictures and illustrations of the civilizations of mankind including a number of newly found pictures from the nineteenth century 5 a chapter describing the potentially disturbing implications of patterns in civilizations are we free and the implications for the philosophy of history and 6 expanded comments in many sections such as the sections on the future of humanity the role of china and the islamic west conflict the book begins with a hard hitting tell it like it is chapter on the current international situation with statements such as the united states and western civilization is now engaged in a small vietnam style war on a global scale at the time of this writing this war is still in the early stages of development the attack on the world trade center by muslim terrorists may have the same significance for western civilization that the gothic invasion of rome itself in the prime of the empire the first century ad had for the future of rome they may be a premonition of things to come not necessarily soon but perhaps in a few centuries the goths returned three centuries later and remained as permanent conquerors over the long term the west must free itself from a dependence on muslim oil muslim oil revenues are the fuel for the development of weapons of mass destruction by iran and iraq in the future they will supply the revenues of an expansionist islam as the silk trade looted the roman empire of its gold and reduced its economy the trade in oil is looting the west of its prosperity and freedom of action the rise and fall of oil prices has a significantly greater effect on the american and world economy than the raising and lowering of interest rates by central banks the book then describes a theory of civilizations that led to these observations currently unfolding events seem to be fulfilling the predictions which were made last year including the new north korean threat that seems to be consistent with a predicted breakdown in japan north korea will create major problems with japan as this is being written japan is moving aegis destroyers nearer to north korea and preparing for defense the events described in this book and its predecessor appear to be happening as predicted last year according to theory of civilizations the basis of civilizations was laid with a genetic mutation found by ding et al 40 000 years ago that created bold enterprising individuals who became the leadership group of civilizations a group that toynbee called the creative minority when the world s climate became warmer and more stable 10 000 years ago the seeds of civilizations began to germinate thus the origin of civilizations is tied to human genetics the book then shows that a long term social behavior pattern of mankind based on four generation trends causes civilizations to develop and oscillate in patterns of routs and rallies civilizations rise and fall due to their internal human dynamics the theory of civilization is developed using equations and 68 diagrams that show a close detailed match between the theory and the actual history of all known asian european and african civilizations over the last 5 500 years the theory projects the future of today s civilizations including the future of western and islamic civilizations it also successfully describes the interaction of barbarians and civilizations the interaction of two civilizations the impact of modern technology on civilizations it accounts for the luddite reaction to the industrial revolution the impact of major environmental events on civilizations e g the collapse of minoan civilization due to a volcanic eruption and the disintegration of civilizations it also accounts for the tremendous growth phases seen in many civilizations such as the building of the great pyramids in egyptian civilizations based on the theory fifteen new civilizations are identified including new prehistoric chinese and egyptian civilizations having shown the success of the theory for earth civilizations it considers the form of extraterrestrial civilizations and calculates their impact on western civilization should contact be established the book also shows the need for the colonization of space and nearby planets if mankind is to progress in the future the book analyzes the impact of the lengthening life spans of mankind on the future of civilizations predictions are made for the state of the world for 2050 and 2100 a detailed understanding the past enables the theory of civilizations to make predictions for the future defining progress to be the sum of the world s civilizations the book shows that progress seems to be approximately linearly increasing over the last 5 500 years a plot of progress appears on the book s cover shown on this web page together with the contributions of each civilization to progress the vertical order of the civilizations in the plot is arbitrary older civilizations tend to be lower in the plot the book is a tour de force that makes history a science rather than a collection of random events it is the first detailed mathematical treatment of history although the book contains mathematics it is intended for the general reader as well as the mathematically inclined there are copious verbal descriptions of the theory as well as many figures plotting the theory versus historical events a qualitative descriptive theory of civilizations is also presented that is like a dow theory of civilizations annotation this collection of essays provides an analysis of the dynamics of civilizations the processes of globalization and of world history are described from a comparative sociological point of view in a weberian tradition these essays were written between 1974 and 2002 by one of the most eminent sociologists of today the author argues that there are conflicting traditions with regard to the question of what is the moral standing of animals according to christianity the dominant tradition maintains that animals are primarily resources but there are alternative strands of christian thought that challenge this view this key concepts pivot examines the fundamental chinese ideas of civilization and culture considering their extensive influence both over chinese society and east asian societies the pivot analyses the traditional connotations of those two concepts and their evolution in the sino western exchanges as well as their renewed interpretation and application by contemporary chinese scholars it analyses how the years 1840 1900 which mark a period of major transition in china challenged these concepts and highlights how the pursuit of innovation and international perspective gave birth to new values and paradigm shifts and culminated in the may fourth new culture movement considering the underlying humanistic ideas in the key concepts of traditional chinese civilisation and culture this pivot contributes to this series of chinese key concept by offering a unique analysis of the conceptual evolutions brought about by the change of values in 21st century china a collection of essays by social theorists historical sociologists and area specialists in classical biblical and asian studies the contributions deal with cultural transformations in major civilizational centres during the axial age the middle centuries of the last millennium bce and their long term consequences in civilizations felipe fernández armesto once again proves himself a brilliantly original historian capable of large minded and comprehensive works here he redefines the subject that has fascinated historians from thucydides to gibbon to spengler to fernand braudel the nature of civilization to fernández armesto a civilization is civilized in direct proportion to its distance its difference from the unmodified natural environment by its taming and warping of climate geography and ecology the same impersonal forces that put an ocean between africa and india a river delta in mesopotamia or a 2 000 mile long mountain range in south america have created the mold from which humanity has fashioned its own wildly differing cultures in a grand tradition that is certain to evoke comparisons to the great historical taxonomies each chapter of civilizations connects the world of the ecologist and geographer to a panorama of cultural history in civilizations the medieval poem sir gawain and the green knight is not merely a christian allegory but a testament to the thousand year long deforestation of the trees that once covered 90 percent of the european mainland the indian ocean has served as the world s greatest trading highway for millennia not merely because of cultural imperatives but because the regular monsoon winds blow one way in the summer and the other in the winter in the words of the author unlike previous attempts to write the comparative history of civilizations it is arranged environment by environment rather than period by period or society by society thus seventeen distinct habitats serve as jumping off points for a series of brilliant set piece comparisons thus tundra civilizations from ice age europe are linked with the inuit of the pacific northwest and the mississippi mound builders and the deforesters of eleventh century europe are both understood as civilizations built on woodlands here of course are the familiar riverine civilizations of mesopotamia and china of the indus and the Nile but also highland civilizations from the inca to new guinea island cultures from minoan crete to polynesia to renaissance venice maritime civilizations of the indian ocean and south china sea even the bushmen of southern africa are seen through a lens provided by the desert civilizations of chaco canyon more here are fascinating stories brilliantly told of the voyages of chinese admiral chen ho and portuguese commodore vasco da gama of the great khan and the great zimbabwe here are hesiod s tract on maritime trade in the early aegean and the most up to date genetics of seed crops erudite wide ranging a work of dazzling scholarship written with extraordinary flair civilizations is a remarkable achievement a tour de force by a brilliant scholar a comparative and interdisciplinary study of representations of national history in japan france and the unites stated from 1870 1900 civilization is the definitive history of western civilization s rise to global dominance and the killer applications that made this improbable ascent possible competition science the rule of law consumerism modern medicine and the work ethic this book based on a systematic analysis of leaders speeches examines how regimes in turkey india russia and china strategically weaponize the concept of civilization along with emotional appeals such as pride fear and nostalgia to challenge global liberal democratic norms as the influence of liberal democracy wanes these nations increasingly declare themselves civilization states by redefining national identity to include peoples living in foreign countries justifying belligerence abroad and reinforcing anti democratic practices domestically these regimes position themselves as guardians of transnational peoples with distinctive civilizational values this is the first book to systematically explore how and why these states leverage civilization and emotional manipulation to reshape both domestic politics and international relations the book is a comprehensive study of the strategic position of yangtze river economic belt in the political and economic development of china it is a holistic and precise qualitative and quantitative delineation of jiangsu s position in this belt and its development strategy and the strategic position of yangtze river economic belt in national development it also illustrates the great significance of the initiation of yangtze river economic belt for the economy politics environment and integration of natural resources there is a research of the position of jiangsu in the construction of the nation and the difficulties it has encountered coordinated and balanced development of yangtze river economic belt will effectively facilitate reasonable allocation and exploitation of various resources the implementation of other national strategies and communication and cooperation between china and western countries enhancing their mutual understanding therefore common readers can get some general information from different perspectives and professionals can have a detailed understanding of different arrangements and guiding principles it is thus suitable for different readers yangtze river economic belt runs through the three regions of china making a vital latitudinal axis whose coordinated and balanced development is of great strategic importance for promoting coordinated and shared development of the three regions and for the spatial balance of population economy and the environment the current imbalance between them the absolute disparity in regional development the obstruction in the flow of resource factors the inequality in development opportunities the incoordination between regional economic growth and the bearing capacity of resources and environment the fragmentation of regional economic policies all contribute to the insufficient utilization of the golden waterway problems numerous how coordinated and balanced development can be realized within this economic belt is a prominent and pressing even a severe problem
